 Alex Taylor 12th Dec 2020 ★★★★★ Fantastic route. Did this Saturday morning... and no rain!! So much variety... fields, villages, towns, woods, reseviors, golf courses. Just moved in to the Meltham area so helped me getting to know the area. Long inclines in places which was a great work out on the legs.... great views too. Will do this one regularly... taking my daughter next time as she will love it.
 Alison Thornton 31st May 2020 ★★★★★ I did this walk on a gloriously sunny day, and the views were spectacular. I made it a little longer by setting off from home rather than heading into Holmfirth, as the walk passes through the nearest village to me. Although I've lived in and around Holmfirth most of my life, this walk took me on paths I never even knew were there! There are a few climbs, (you won't find a walk round here without them), but nothing too strenuous, and definitely worth it for the views from the high points. The instructions were excellent, and very easy to follow. All in all, I found this a great walk, and I'd recommend it to anyone... and probably
